SOAR AND DROP TO DEATH

Buc, France, June 5.—Auguste Bernard, a French airman, and a passenger, Mme. Rose Amicet, were killed today under unusual circumstances while making a flight at the aerodrome here.

When the aeroplane was at a considerable altitude Mme. Amicet's seat became entangled in the lever connections. Instantly the pilot lost control and the machine plunged to the earth and was shattered.

HITS AT BIG INDUSTRY

Washington, June 6.—In accord with suggestions of Attorney General McKim, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, introduced yesterday an anti-trust amendment to the Underwood tariff bill, which would levy a special additional excise tax on a sliding or graduated scale upon manufacturers of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff. The amendment, coming from a Democratic member, will result through consideration from the finance committee. The Progressive excise tax proposed would not reach a manufacturer until he controlled about 25 per cent of the total production of the articles.

Companies of ordinary size would not be subject to this tax because they do not apply to production below 50,000,000 pounds of tobacco or 4,000,000 pounds of snuff a year, so that of the 2700 tobacco companies in the country, probably only three would be affected and of the 73 snuff companies, only three would be taxed. In the matter of cigarettes the tax would fall only on two or three companies out of 478, and of the 20,000 cigar companies only two have a production large enough to be taxed.

Seventy million dollars was the amount of the total excise tax last year on the tobacco products and Senator Hitchcock has estimated that if the proposed tax had been levied on last year's business, the foreign revenue would have been $75,000,000; American Tobacco company, $75,000,000; Liggett & Myers, $3,100,000; Lorillard company, $144,000; American Snuff company, $77,000; George W. Helme company, $69,000; Weyman & Burton company, $51,000.

"There would also have been other companies subject to this tax if it could be shown that they were under the same ownership or control as any of the big companies," said Senator Hitchcock, "and in the case of the Lorillard company, it would be subject to a much higher rate of taxation if it could be shown that it is owned or controlled by the same interests that are back of any other company."

"It is probable therefore that this tax in the aggregate would reach $15,000,000 a year, which is so large that it would soon cause a real dissolution of the tobacco trust. If it did not, it would yield a handsome revenue to the treasury and so handicap the trust that it could not carry out its program of crushing independent companies."

"The government already has the machinery to enforce this tax. Tobacco and snuff manufacture in all forms is under complete government control. The power to tax to the point of destruction is unquestioned. It is summary and irresistible."

Senator Borah introduced an amendment to the tariff bill which would bar from entry all goods manufactured wholly or in part by children under 14 years of age, or by children under 16 years of age who are required to work more than eight hours a day or more than 48 hours a week. It also would bar all imports made wholly or in part by convict labor.

SMOOT AT LOBBY QUERY

Washington, June 6.—Questions as to the interest in the Mormon church in Utah brought about a lively clash between Senator Reed Smoot and the Democratic members of the senate "lobby" committee late yesterday. Senator Smoot said the church held a small amount of stock in the Utah Idaho Sugar company, and in the Knight Woolen Mills company at Provo, but he resented question by Senators Reed and Walsh that he thought carried insinuations that he represented the interests of the Mormon church at Washington.

"Here in Washington I represent all the people of Utah," he said sharply. "I don't represent Mormon or Jew or Gentile, black or white, Methodist or Presbyterian."

Sensor Reed said he had not meant to insinuate that Senator Smoot was the representative of the Mormon church. "Don't you in a way represent the church's stock in the meaning of this investigation?" asked Senator Walsh.

"I do not," retorted Senator Smoot, "no more than you do."

Sensors Smoot, Mark Smith, Shaffroth and Williams testified at the afternoon session. They produced new bundles of literature sent out by various organizations and individuals. The investigating committee finally decided that it would have to pass on this literature and determine whether or not it was "misleading" or would have "pernicious effect."

The committee decided last night to extend its present inquiry into a sweeping investigation of all organized efforts that have been made to influence action upon legislation of any kind now pending before congress or under consideration in the recent past.

Committee members agreed that even though raising money for public utility campaigns might be legitimate, the issuing of false statements or misleading public documents would be an insidious attempt to influence the public and members of congress.

That detectives in some cases have been used to shadow members of congress in the interest of certain legislative action is a point that Senator Cummins will endeavor to establish. He asked Senator Smoot whether the latter knew of any such activity. Senator Smoot said he had "heard of it" but could give the committee no information.

Sensor Cummins declined to state what further witnesses would be produced or to indicate the nature of the detective work that has been done.

Senator Smoot gave the committee the names of many persons who had called upon him on tariff subjects. He said he had taken no part personally in the organization of any fight against free sugar, and he did not know the existence of a "lobby" or the use of money, further than as a public advertisement indicated it.

AUTO KILLS LITTLE GIRL

Salt Lake, June 6.—Elaine McPhee Paulson, 11 years old, was instantly killed and Harvey Milton Shoemaker, 11 years old, probably fatally injured, in two automobile accidents yesterday.

The little girl was struck by the fire automobile, carrying Chief William H. Bywater and driven by Bird Marks, the accident occurring at Ninth East and Ninth South. The chief was responding to a $2 fire in a chicken coop at 733 Windsor avenue. Fire Chief Bywater was thrown from his machine, when an effort was made to stop the big automobile, and suffered a wrenched back, and it is believed, internal injuries.

The second accident occurred in front of the Bamberger depot, when the Shoemaker boy was run down by Governor Spry's auto, driven by J. H. Spry, the governor's nephew. The machine was being driven to the Oregon Short Line depot to meet Governor Spry and other western governors, who had been on a trip to Bingham.

The Shoemaker boy was on a bicycle and got caught between interurban and street cars, when the auto came along.

Eye witnesses of the accident say that the Spry machine was moving very slowly and that the boy, attempting to get out of the way, skidded his wheel on the car track and fell in front of the automobile. Young Spry did everything he could to stop the auto, but the front wheel went over the boy's head.

Young Shoemaker is at the point of death.

PRESIDENT AT CAPITOL

Washington, June 6.—President Wilson appeared unexpectedly at the president's room at the capitol late yesterday with the biggest list of diplomatic selections he has made since he took office. It was the president's sixth visit to the halls of congress, but this time he found the door of the "marble room" locked.

The senate had adjourned, and the sergeant-at-arms was taken by surprise.

"I guess I'll have to get a duplicate key for this door," said the president smilingly, as the sergeant-at-arms hastily dispatched a messenger for the key. Hardly any senators were in the building, but Secretary Tumulty soon sent out a call for about twenty of them, and they came in quickly from the senate office building.

While the president has not definitely fixed on some of the countries to which he will make diplomatic appointments, he has chosen the men who will get the posts and about these he consulted Republicans as well as Democratic senators.

The individuals about whom the president talked and some of the countries, follow:

Thomas Nelson Page of Virginia, to be ambassador to Italy.

Justice J. W. Gihard of New York, to be ambassador to Spain, when the bill making Madrid an embassy instead of a legation passed, probably within a few weeks.

Col. Thomas H. Birch of New Jersey, to be minister to Persia.

Charles W. McAlpin, secretary of Princeton university, to be minister to the Netherlands.

Joseph E. Willard of Virginia, to be minister to Belgium.

Major E. J. Hale of North Carolina, to be minister to Costa Rica.

P. A. Stovall of Georgia, to be minister to Switzerland.

Former Governor Benton McMillen of Tennessee, to be minister to Peru.

Dr. B. L. Jefferson of Colorado, to be minister to a South American republic.

Henry Morgenthau of New York, to be ambassador, probably to Turkey.

Albert Schmedemann of Wisconsin, to be minister to Norway.

Frederick C. Penfield of Pennsylvania, probably ambassador to Austria.

When the president got through talking to the senators he met the newspaper men in the corridor and explained that his visit had been chiefly about diplomatic appointments and that no official list would be made public until word was received from the various governments as to the acceptability of the individuals selected.

The president left the capitol as inconspicuously as he came. The attendants held an elevator for him, but the president thanked them and declined.

"I guess I am a good Democrat and can walk down," he said with a laugh. Other names on the president's list about which he consulted Senators Kern and Shively of Indiana were former Representative John E. Lamb and Meredith Nicholson, the author. The countries to which they may be sent are said to have been undetermined.

BANK SECURES ORDER FOR PROPERTY LEFT

Salt Lake, June 6.—The mysterious murder of Ethel Williams, alias Ethel Wallingford, in Bingham December 10, was recalled yesterday when a suit was heard before Judge M. L. Ritchie involving the possession of $2500 and interest, amounting in all to about $4000, on deposit in McCormick's bank.

The action was brought by the Salt Lake Security & Trust company as administrator of the estate of the deceased to establish title to the money and collect it from the bank, which had refused to turn it over because it was on deposit under the name of Ethel Wallingford. The bank wanted the identity of Ethel Wallingford and Ethel Williams established by court record before turning over the money. The order was made by the court and the money will be turned over to the administrator.

Today another suit will be heard of the trust company against the Zion's Savings Bank & Trust company to recover a deposit amounting to about $4500.

Henry S. Wallingford, who claims to have been the husband of the murdered woman, first brought suit to recover the money but failed to qualify as administrator so the suits were taken up by the trust company, which so qualified.

The woman was mysteriously strangled to death and was robbed of a pair of diamond earrings and a diamond brooch. The murderers escaped.

WOMEN LIKE THEIR WORK

St. Louis, June 6.—The hearing conducted by the Missouri senate wage investigation committee was enlivened yesterday by a spirited tilt between Lieut. Governor Payson and Mrs. Raymond Robbins, a Chicago settlement worker, as to the place of women in the modern scheme of life.

The lieutenant governor declared that the attitude of women in the modern scheme of life was destroying home ties and subjecting women to industrial slavery. Mrs. Robbins agreed that women were slaves, but that every woman was entitled to work. She declared her purpose was to make women rebellious so they would demand more pay and better working conditions.

"Will not the employment of women result in a decrease in children that the country eventually will become depopulated?" asked the lieutenant governor.

"Oh no," Mrs. Robbins replied. "There are 25,000 children in my ward in Chicago."

"But are they not the children of foreign-born people and do you not find in every city among the American-born people that there are fewer children from year to year?"

"Yes," said Mrs. Robbins.

Mrs. Robbins said she would be glad to see people go to the country to live, but insisted that under existing conditions women could not work for women to do in the homes, and it was better for them to be engaged in gainful occupations and that they should be paid a proper minimum wage—$12 a week or more.

Mrs. Robbins said that women enjoyed being among the multitude, preferring that to the home.

"If not women's employment in the industries enforced women's slavery in this country?" asked the lieutenant governor.

"Yes," said Mrs. Robbins.

"And are not women workers more firmly in bondage than were the African slaves who were valuable to their owners and properly cared for? Do not employers now know that when they wear out one girl they can get another to take her place?"

"Yes, that's true," said Mrs. Robbins.

"If women were taken out of the industries and lived at home and took care of the families, would they not be better off? Would not the men be better off? Would not the mothers get higher wages? And would they not be better able to provide for their families?"

"Every woman is entitled to work in this country," replied Mrs. Robbins.
